MARTINSVILLE, VA., Nov. 30.—The seconal day of the Virginia Field Trials opened under most auspicious circumstances, a slight rain during the night dampened the ground just enough to make the secenting condition fine for the derby.

The party were up and stirring by 6 A. M. All earlier start was necessary as there were five braces and a bye to be run off. The first brace. Chesterfield Lad, owned by J. C. Tignor, or Richmond, and Roanoke Belle, owned by E. P. Wilkins, of Riverton, were ite go at 9 A. M. The was a poor brace and did little work. The next brace was much better. Rips Bolt, owned by Wilkins was cast away with Chinook, cwned by Dr. Leigh Buckner, of Ricenoke. They gave a good exhibition of speed and range; Rips Bolt the best. Only one corvy was found on singles and both dogs secured several flushes. They were ordered up at 10.15.

The next brace was Captain John, owned by J. D. Fry, of South Boston, with Ingleside Belle, owned by G. G. Herring, and the results action and Belle found a covey. Both only fair dogs.

The last brace before dinner was Macks Lady, owned by Henry Mackay Hewlett, with Bow Boy, G. G. Herring, Lady, owned by Henry Mackay Hewlett, with Bow Boy, G. G. Herring, and showed up well. Boy flushed a single and was steady when the baiance of the covey was flushed. They were taken up at 12:10 and the party adjourned for lunch at Judge Hairston's house.

The next brace was Captain John, owned by J. D. Fry, of South Boston, with Ingleside Belle, owned by G. G. Herring, of Harrisonburg. John not having arrived, Chesterfield Dalsy, owned by J. C. Tignor was called up to run with Belle Dalsy, found and chased a hare to her satisfaction and Belle found a covey. Both only fair dogs.

The last brace before dinner was Macks Lady, owned by Henry Mackay Hewlett, with Bow Boy, G. G. Herring, Lady was lame and started on three legs. This was a good going brace of dogs and showed up well. Boy flushed a single and was steady when the balance of the covey was flushed. They were taken up at 12:10 and the party, adjourned for lunch at Judge Hairston's house.

The Stephens Hotel sent out an elegant repast including old Virginia blackberry wine furnished by Mrs. Stephens. As all were hungry, the repast was much enjoyed. After lunch four braces were tried over but few birds found as the wind was blowing very strong, making it hard to find the birds. The party, came to town at 5:30, and after supper the judges announced the following winners: Ingleside Flirt, first, G. G. Herring owner; Glenmore's Nellie, third, G. R. Todd, of Richmond, owner; Bow Bow, fourth, Henry G. Herrings of Harrisonburg. Va. To-morrow the big free-for-all stake will be run and the Virginia sportsmen will have a chance to see Champion Prince Rodney perform, the dog recently sold by Secretary Cooke for such a handsome rum. This dog is the awe and admiration of the village and all day visitors are calling at the hotel to "see that $1.250 dog," since reading the account in The Times-Dispatch. formerly Miss Edith L. Collins, of New York, and a great-granddaughter of Commodore Vanderblit, in her application for a separation from her husband, Count Calykowski, secretary of the Turkish legation at The Hague.

The decree awards the wife the care of her children. The Count pleaded that the Turkish law gave him control of the children above seven years of age, but the count sustained the Countess's pleathat the Turkish aw is inapplicable to parties resident outside of Turkey.

The Countess Czaykowski, as Miss Edith Lyman Collins, was the ward of Sonator Chauncey M, Depew. She inherited a large fortune from the grandmother, Mrs. Neven. She was married to Reched Bey. Americans Can Do It.

It has been discovered at Venice that the "antiquities" purchased there by Americans are manufactured by enter-prising Italians. Some enterprising Amer-icans should build factories in this coun-try so that we may manufacture our own Venetian antiquities and at the same time save the customs duties on them.—Atlanta Journal.
